The Medina Sentinel

will send four ladies of Medina County and vicinity on a grand personally conducted tour of the Western states, visiting the following places:

Denver, Colorado Springs, The Royal Gorge, Glenwood Springs, Salt Lake City, Reno, San Francisco, The Big Tree District, Santa Barbara, San Diego, Los Angeles, San Gabriel, Pasadena and Riverside.

with every cent of the necessary expenses, with the exception of meals, which is better left to the person themselves, paid by this paper from the time of leaving Cleveland until the return. Every comfort and convenience will be provided for the pleasure of our party.

Medina and Medina county has been divided into three districts as elsewhere described on this page. The young woman in each district receiving the highest number of votes will be entitled to one of these vacation trips. The district winner who receives the largest total vote of all the district winners will be allowed to select the chaperone, who may be a mother, sister, or friend, who helped in the contest. A coupon will be printed in each issue of THE SENTINEL which will entitle the holder to one vote when properly filled out. Cash subscriptions paid in advance will be entitled to votes in proportion to the length of time for which they are paid.

THE RULES

Rule No. 1—Any lady ever 16 years of age, married or single, who can be properly vouched for, is eligible to enter the contest only from the district in which she lives. She may nominate herself or a friend may place her name in nomination.

Rule No. 2—Nominations may be made and will be received up to the last day of the competition.

Rule No. 3—There will be three districts from which to enter, as described on this page. The contestant who obtains the largest number of votes in each district will be declared the winner in that district. The one district winner whose vote is the highest of all the districts will have the privilege of selecting a chaperone for the tour who will enjoy all the privileges of the district winners. Any district having less than two active contestants will be declared off and said district merged into the district nearest it, and contestant from said district added to the one with which it is merged. Contestants who may move out of the district from which they entered during the life of the contest must continue as contestants in district from which they entered. In case of a tie on the highest vote in any of the districts named, the two contestants will both be awarded the trip.

Rule No. 4—Voting will be by two methods: By coupons clipped from THE MEDINA SENTINEL, which will count for one vote each; and by special coupons issued for payments made on subscriptions according to the published schedule. These payments must be made in cash to the home office of the paper during the period covered by the contest, whereupon a special subscription coupon will be issued, good for number of votes to which such payment is entitled. Votes will not be sold or issued in any other manner. Special subscription coupons must bear the number corresponding with the ledger number on record in the office and must be countersigned by the contest manager or his assistants. Contestants are not limited to their own districts in securing votes and subscriptions, but may obtain them anywhere. Votes are not transferable from one contestant to another.

Rule No. 5—All remittances must be accompanied by subscriber's name and address.

Rule No. 6—All votes issued on subscriptions are good to the end of the contest and may be polled at the discretion of the candidate or subscriber.

Rule No. 7—Cash must accompany all subscriptions when votes are issued.

Rule No. 8—First publication of names will be made as soon as a suitable number have been nominated in each district. Voting will commence Saturday, Jan. 30 at 9 a. m., and continue until Saturday March 20, at 9 p. m., at which time the contest will close.

Rule No. 9—All coupons must be filed away and be subject to inspection of contestants or their representatives at any time during life of contest.

Rule No. 10—No employe or close relative of an employe of THE MEDINA SENTINEL can enter the contest.

Rule No. 11—A board of five responsible business men will have exclusive control of the ballot box the last day of the contest and make announcement of the result of that day's voting.

Rule No. 12—The Contest Manager reserves the right to reject any nomination and to pass final judgment upon any question that may arise, not covered by these rules.

Rule No. 13—No statement or promise made by any solicitor, canvasser or agent, varying from these rules, will be recognized by THE MEDINA SENTINEL.

Rule No. 14—THE MEDINA SENTINEL reserves the right to change the plan or to make any additions or alterations to the above conditions that may be decided necessary to the interest and welfare of the contest and its candidates.

In accepting nomination and in casting votes, all candidates must accept and agree to abide by the above rules and conditions.
